

DEPAUW WAS FIRST PLANNED 125 YEARS AGO

STARTED DURING MEETING OF HOOSIER METHO- DISTISTS IN NEW ALBANY

One hundred and twenty-five years ago this month, a group of Hoosier Methodist laid plans for establishment of the institution now known as DePauw University.

According to Dr. George B. Manhart, professor emeritus of history at DePauw, Methodism's Indiana Conference heard its first report from the Committee on a Conference Seminary during an October, 1832, meeting in New Albany.

The report read, in part: "When we examine the state of the literary institutions of our country we find that a majority of them are in the hands of other denominations."

"We would advise that the presiding elders of the several districts be required to collect all the information in their power in reference to an eligible site, and the means to build, and present the same to the next conference."

Indiana College at Bloomington was the state's only institution offering college instruction. Vincennes University was chartered in 1806 but replaced by a college seminary in 1825, and Hanover Academy did not become Hanover College until 1833.

One month after the Methodist action at New Albany, a group of nine Presbyterian leaders met in Crawfordsville, decided to establish a school, and purchased a tract of land.

Operating as the Crawfordsville English and High School, 1833-34, and as the Wabash Teachers Seminary and Labor College, 1834-38, the Presbyterian-founded institution became Wabash College in 1839.

In 1837 the Methodist plans reached fruition, and Indiana Asbury University in Greencastle was chartered by the state legislature. Forty-seven years later the name was changed to DePauw University.

Also among the earliest Indiana colleges was the Indiana Manual Labor Institution at Franklin, which became Franklin College in 1844. First plans were laid in 1834, and the school opened in 1837.

Mild Autumn Weather Back

Mid autumn weather returned to most of the eastern section of the nation today, with the greatest warming felt over the Southeast.

Overnight readings climbed as much as 22 degrees in Birmingham, Ala., and Crossville, Tenn., as compared with night before when temperatures in much of the Southwest hovered near freezing.

Warmer weather also occurred over the northern Plains and the northern Rockies where overnight temperatures registered in the relatively mild 40s.

Light rain accompanied the warmer weather over the Ohio and lower Mississippi valleys. Rain also hit the state of Washington during the night in advance of a storm center pushing into the Pacific Northwest.

Discussion Led By Norton Smith

About thirty-five members of the Putnam County Livestock Advisory Committee met in one of their regular dinner sessions at Irene's Cafe.

The discussion which was led by Norton Smith of the Purdue Agricultural Economics Department, centered around changing marketing patterns for selling livestock. This discussion was very timely as decentralized marketing, direct selling, auctions, merit selling, and live grading of market animals are appearing on the marketing scene at the present time.

Naturally there are pros and cons on all these methods and Mr. Smith's analysis and discussion should prove very valuable in helping guide local livestock producers with their marketing problems.

The next meeting of the group is scheduled for February 4, 1958.

Claude Martin, 32, was killed in a traffic accident on U. S. 36, near the Putnam-Hendricks Co. line near Groveland Wednesday.

Martin, a driver for the Schwermann Trucking Company, of Greencastle, was en route to the Bunker Hill Air Base at Peru with a load of cement from the Lone Star plant at Limesdale when he met his death. Martin's home is in Carbon.

Martin was burned to death when his loaded truck crashed.

Highway Trial Ends Abruptly

INDIANAPOLIS UP—Testimony in the Indiana highway conspiracy trial ended abruptly today when two of the four defendants who were expected to take the stand in their own defense changed their minds.

Special Judge Walter Pritchard predicted the case would go to the jury "certainly by Friday."

The trial, outgrowth of alleged and-buoying irregularities disclosed last spring, came to a halt when Milan attorney Robert Peak and Harry Doggett of Greensburg, aide to former highway right-of-way director Nile Feverbaugh, decided not to testify.

Prosecutor John Tindler then called Jacob Greene, his chief investigator, to the stand, to restate testimony by Feverbaugh that he was surrounded by several people, including newsmen, at a meeting in the office of highway right-of-way director Charles Dawson April 12, the day after the scandal broke in the newspapers.

8 Known Dead In Plane Crash

FLAGSTAF, Ariz. (UP)—Air Force and civilian rescue teams today resumed the task of searching for bodies in the wreckage of a giant KC-97 tanker plane which was believed to be carrying 16 crewmen when it crashed into a mountain. The crash occurred in desolate country 40 miles north of here.

Eight bodies were spotted Tuesday by an advance rescue team which reached the scene several hours after the crash. It was feared that no one survived the crash.

PARIS HOSTS NATO SESSION IN DECEMBER

HEADS OF STATE OF EN- TIRE MEMBERSHIP WILL ATTEND

PARIS UP—NATO announced today that the heads of state of its 15 members would attend a meeting in Paris in December.

Such a meeting would be the first in history of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

There already have been reports that President Eisenhower had agreed to attend the meeting, but no formal announcement.

The NATO Council met this morning and a spokesman said it had approved the proposal for the meeting made by NATO Secretary General Paul-Henri Spaak.

The meeting will take place in Paris on Dec. 16, 17, and 18.

The decision to bring the chiefs of the 15 member nations to Paris grew out of the Washington meeting between Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Spaak, who is still in the United States, was present during conferences between the American and British leaders.

A NATO spokesman said "the initial suggestion for this meeting had been made by Mr. Spaak as a result of his discussions in Washington."

The purpose of the meeting would be to "further strengthen NATO solidarity and to give collaboration of the 15 nations in NATO highest priority," the spokesman said.

This would be the greatest collection of top level diplomats since world diplomats gathered in San Francisco in 1947 to write the United Nations charter.

It would come when Western solidarity is needed more than ever before in the face of Russian technical advances. The agenda for the meeting would contain a sweeping range of items ranging from the Middle East to the reunification of Germany.

—NEW CHEVROLET
of the Chevrolet line is suggested by the new body groupings and identification.

In recognition of the growing popularity of station wagons, an exclusive five-unit series of this body type has been established.

The Bell Air series is continued, but adds among its six models a sumptuous sport coupe and convertible under the Impala name plate, introduced on a "dream car" at the General Motors Motorama in 1956.

In the middle range of the low-priced car bracket is a Biscayne series, with two sedans. The bottom end of the price spread will be occupied by three models making up the Delray series. In 1957 comparable series were known as Two-Ten and One-Fifty, respectively.

Roominess and quality of the new line, says the company, will be immediately apparent.

In looks, the cars have an air of loveliness. Because of the thoroughness of the transformation stylists and engineers were able to correlate their ideas into a single unit of bumper-to-bumper progress.

COUNTY RIVALS OPEN NET WARS FRIDAY NIGHT

POINTERS BATTLE HAWKS AND PANTHERS CLASH WITH CLOVERS

Old Putnam county rivals meet Friday night as the 1957-58 high school basketball season gets underway.

The Bainbridge Pointers will invade Roachdale to battle the Hawks and Belle Union's Panthers take on the Cloverdale Clovers in the Fillmore gym to open the new hardwood court campaign.

Coach Ed Orrill informs us that he has only two Roachdale regulars back from last year. They are Bob Baird and Pat Raddy, both juniors.

Orrill says the Hawk squad will be small in stature, the tallest boy, Don Vanvactor, a freshman, is 5'11". The rest of the players stand 5'10" or less.

Although small and inexperienced, Orrill believes his squad is willing and will make up in speed some of the handicap they lack in height.

Coach Glenn Steele, of Cloverdale, will again have a rangy aggregation with Jim Sheese, Lloyd Broadstreet, Jim Sharp, Roy Price and Jim Hays all six feet or better.

Belle Union has two six foot veterans in Robert Barnett, 6'1" and Johnny Simmons an even six feet.

Reelsville's Indians under the tutelage of their new mentor, Marvin Knoop, travel to Concanon Friday for their net debut. Knoop is a graduate of Indiana Central College.

Sherill Alexander will again pilot the Fillmore Cardinals who will be host to Cloverdale on Saturday night.

Floyd Snider is the new coach for the Russellville Bees. Snider is also graduate of Indiana Central.

Gene Hawkins continues as mentor of the Bainbridge squad and Percy Masten is directing the action of the Belle Union aggregation.

Idle last week when Evansville's flu-bugged entry called off its Dads' Day appearance in Greencastle, DePauw has won three in a row and four of its five starts.

Also sporting a 4-1 record and a three-game victory string Saturday will be the host Yellowjackets, with their 27-20 loss to Hobart matching DePauw's 7-0 setback at the hands of St. Joseph's.

Coached by Bob Hicks, the Tigers currently are deadlocked with Butler for second place in the Indiana Collegiate Conference and will meet the Bulldogs Nov. 9 in Indianapolis.

Rug Co. Plant Razed By Blaze

NORTH VERNON, Ind. (UP) —Two persons were injured late Tuesday when a $750,000 fire destroyed the Regal Rug Co. near the heart of the business district.

AROUND THE WORLD

The 58 Ford has been proved around the world. This is the most dramatic and most grueling test ever given a new car before its public announcement.

The whole world was used as a test track for the 58 Ford. The car drove through England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, India, Malaya, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, and finally back to the place it started--Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A.

The Ford powered over the great mountain ranges of three continents: from the Alps to the Himalayas and the Rockies. It crossed the great rivers of history: the Thames, the Seine, the Tiber, the Arno, the Tigris, the Euphrates, the Indus, the Ganges.

This car stood at Buckingham Palace, rolled up the Champs Elysees to the Arc de Triomphe, and paused at the Eiffel Tower. It was greeted by the great Paris courtiers at the famous fashion salons where its "sculptured in steel" styling was applauded by the most style-conscious audience in the world.

The 58 Ford rode smoothly down the rugged, beautiful seacoast of Tito's country, to a festival in Dubrovnik, and into Greece to Athens, where this newest classic met such ancient classics as the Parthenon and the Temple of Poseidon.

Into Turkey: and the 58 Ford passed the great white lacework palaces of the Sultans along the Bosphorus and the Golden Horn. Then the Ford went where few but nomads travel, up into the hot days and chill nights of the ancient mountains of Afghanistan. And thence along the route Alexander the Great followed with his chariots to cross the historic Indus river.

On and on the Ford moved, down into the heat of mysterious India, through New Delhi to the Taj Mahal, and to the great pink palace of the Maharajah of Jaipur.

This great new car met the challenge of the monsoons--rains that for centuries have stopped all road movement throughout Indo-China, but didn't stop the 58 Ford. It drove on to Penang in Malaya, and then north to Bangkok.

Further on came Saigon, the Paris of the Orient, at the farthest tip of South-east Asia. Finally, it powered across the great Rockies and plains of North America and back, at long last, to Detroit, Michigan.

The 58 Ford : : has been proved and approved around the world. A natural question arises. Why did Ford go to such great lengths with its 1958 model? Why spend so much money and time and go through all the problems of negotiations, customs, border transit, diplomacy in so many countries?

The answer: in the competitive automobile market of today, only the best in all-around value can survive. And this round-the-world test is the most decisive possible demonstration of the best.

The 1958 Ford is value: hard-dollar value. It is also style, power, performance, and a dozen great new features. But above all, it is value.

This is the car you've been waiting for. See it November 7--there's nothing new in the world than the 58 Ford!

GOMULKA HAS LAUNCHED RED PARTY PURGE

NEARLY 700,000 EXPECTED
TO BE KICKED OUT IN POLAND

By United Press
Wladyslaw Gomulka of Poland has launched one of the biggest purges in Communist Party history.

Ever since he was restored to leadership in the Polish revolt one year ago, Gomulka has been under attack by two strong, conflicting party groups.

On one side, there are the "Conservatives," the old-time Communists who want to follow the Moscow line of Josef Stalin's day. On the other side, are the "Revisionists," who want an even more radical departure from orthodox Communism than Gomulka has effected in his cautious pursuit of independence from Moscow.

Now Gomulka has won the support of his Communist Party Central Committee, the ruling body, for a purge of both groups of enemies.

There are more than 1,300,000 members in the Polish Communist Party. With the backing of the Central Committee, Gomulka intends to throw out from one-half to two-thirds of them, or up to nearly 700,000.

In the unusual divergence from orthodox Communist practice which has marked his leadership, Gomulka in addressing the Central Committee discussed frankly the weaknesses in both the Communist Party and Polish economy.

Gomulka said that the Communist Party had been unable to carry out its functions properly because of disunity, lack of discipline, confusion as to policy, and self-seeking.

Wants Dispute Off UN Agenda

UNITED NATIONS (UP) — The United States wants the entire Turkish-Syrian dispute wiped off the U. N. agenda now that the Russians apparently have changed their tune, a top American source said today.

Washington, the informant said, would prefer to have the issue "die with a dull thud." There were indications the General Assembly was seeking ways to close the book on the "war crisis" between Syria and Turkey. The Syrian delegate is expected to make another speech when the assembly convened today. There was little likelihood that he would formally move to send a multi-power investigating team to the Middle East.

Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, markedly quiet during the previous acrimonious debate, also was expected to speak today. It was believed that he would offer a "compromise" proposal to end discussion.

The emergency "war crisis" atmosphere whipped up by the Soviet-Syrian charges against the United States and Turkey almost completely evaporated Tuesday.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko made an unusually mild reply to the glittering attack on Soviet foreign policy by U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge last week.

And in Moscow, Communist Party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev made the observation during a reception at the Turkish Embassy that the "compass needle" seemed to have swung toward peace.
